NO 22-48

Secret Service
U. S. Treasury Department
S. W. Corner, Pennsylvania Ave. and 15th St. N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sirs:

Several persons have contacted this office recently and advised that Lee Oswald, suspected of assassinating the late President Kennedy, was seen distributing pamphlets entitled "Hands Off Cuba" on St. Jacques and McGill Streets, Montreal during the Summer of 1963.

Mr. Jean Paul Tremblay, Investigator, Customs and Excise, Montreal stated on November 27, 1963 that he received one of the above-mentioned pamphlets from a man on St. Jacques Street, Montreal, believed to be in August 1963, and he is positive that this person was Oswald. Mr. Tremblay also stated that Oswald was accompanied at the time by a short, homely, heavy woman who took unusually long steps when walking and two men about Oswald's age and weight. One of these two men is described as a little taller than Oswald and has a pointed face. Mr. Tremblay also stated that he believes he could identify the three persons that accompanied Oswald and that the reason for paying special attention to these persons was because he was working on cases involving Cuba at the time.
